Author and Instagram's Director of Fashion Partnerships

The previous Editor-in-Chief is now focused on authoring children's books and running fashion partnerships at Instagram. Her optimistic point of view and well-known style make her an expert in the fashion space, which is why we were excited to see her POV on fine art.

Eva Chen says

"My family will be celebrating the holidays from our new weekend house for the first time this winter. We designed the space (with the marvelous Hendricks Churchill) to be a respite from NYC. As such, we were immediately drawn to soothing abstract art. Ali Beletic's serene but joyful work is a foundation for the aesthetic in our house—and similarly serves as my inspiration for this curation.. "
